Banu Uçak

Short CV

Banu Uçak is an Istanbul-based architect, writer, creative director and consultant. She writes and speaks about architecture and cities, and works across design management, content development and curation. Alongside her independent consultancy practice, she has served as creative director of the furniture and design brand FÖRNİ since 2022 and has been responsible for strategic marketing and business development at Ağustos Teknoloji since 2018. She has been a member of the World Architecture Festival (WAF) jury since 2016. Her first book, Yalın Şeyler, was published by YEM Yayın in December 2025. She continues to create, write, bring communities together and engage in discussion around the subjects that inspire her, particularly architecture, design, cities and literature.
